

“Worksheets Don’t Grow Dendrites”

Presented by Dr. Marcia L. Tate

Friday, June 29, 2012

GRREC Office and Training Facility – Bowling Green

By popular demand, GRREC is pleased to announce the return of Dr. Marcia Tate to our region on June 29th. Through her company, Developing Minds Inc., Marcia has inspired teachers nationwide with her fast-paced, fun, and interactive presentation.

She is the former Executive Director of Professional Development for DeKalb County Schools in Decatur, Georgia. During her 30 years with the district, she was a classroom teacher, reading specialist, language arts coordinator, and staff development director. Currently an educational consultant, she has taught over 125,000 administrators, teachers, parents, and business and community leaders throughout the world.

Expect to be in high gear all day as she brings back her twenty-one “best bet” instructional strategies, which support the work of researchers like Bob Marzano, Silver & Strong and others. Marcia will demonstrate ways to maximize strategies like metaphors, analogies, & similes; graphic organizers and maps; cooperative learning and reciprocal teaching; project based instruction; expanded use of writing; and more.

Participants will receive multiple activities that can be incorporated in the classroom immediately including a copy of Dr. Tate’s book, Worksheets Don’t Grow Dendrites for all attendees.
